- (y) Paramount’s distribution, as contemplated in any advertising order, of any political advertising material provided by or on behalf of an advertiser (as such material was provided to Paramount) shall not result in Paramount violating any Applicable Laws; and
- (z) all advertising must include all disclosures or disclaimers necessary for its distribution by Paramount to comply with all Applicable Laws, e.g., (i) the sponsorship identification disclosures contained in the Communications Act and the regulations of the Federal Communications Commission and (ii) federal and state laws or regulations requiring disclosure of materially deceptive media in political advertising such as the requirement that materially deceptive content in certain political communications must be disclosed under New York state law.
